Burnsville, VA 24487
(540) 925-2322

Whereas the undersigned has requested of the Butler Cave Conservation Society (hereinafter called "The Society") permission to enter upon and explore a cave or caves managed by The Society:

Now, Therefore, in consideration of such permission hereby granted the undersigned for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, hereby releases The Society, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all liability or responsibility for the personal injury to, or death of, or loss of or damage to any of the property of the undersigned, or anyone he represents or is acting for, while he or such property shall be in or upon such premises, whether or not such injury, death, loss, or damage shall have been caused or may be alleged to have been caused by the negligence of The Society, its agents, servants or employees, the condition of the premises or from any other cause whatsoever.

It is understood that the permission granted herein is at the request of the undersigned and is not at the invitation of The Society and that the execution of this instrument is a condition precedent to the permission so granted.

The undersigned further states that he intends to be legally bound by the foregoing instrument.

Witness the signature and seal of the undersigned.
